INTRODUCING JAPANESE FOODS "RAMEN"

RAMEN is a Japanese noodle and soup dish which originated in China.

Noodles are made by mixing flour, salt, eggs and other ingredients.

Soup stock for RAMEN may be made from seafood, chicken bones or various other ingredients.

The roots of RAMEN lie in China, but RAMEN as we know it today developed independently in Japan. Now RAMEN is one of the most popular foods in Japan along with curry rice.

There are various kinds of RAMEN depending on how the soup is made, the thickness of the Noodles and the flavorings. There are also regional varieties of RAMEN.

When you come to Japan, please try to eat !!
