INTRODUCING JAPANESE FOODS "NIBOSHI RAMEN"

This time, we introduce you another type of RAMEN in Osaka.

There are various kinds of RAMEN depending on the combination of the type of the soup and noodle, or the combination of rich-and-heavy or plain-and-simple taste soup and the thin noodle of thick noodle.

According to the statistics by a private sector, we consume more than 600 million dishes of RAMEN annually.

The most characteristic point of the RAMEN today is the soup. It is cooked mainly from NIBOSHI (Dried small sardines), which contain good amount of calcium, Vitamin B, iron, Taurine, DHA and EPA, and pork.

There are also regional varieties of RAMEN, more than 40 varieties!!

When you come to Japan, why don't you try !!
